But now McCain is learning the hard way, even if he won't yet admit it, that the Reagan playbook's time has come and gone. The old Republican trick was to lie about taxes: Democrats would raise everybody's and Republicans would cut everybody's. (In reality, Republican largesse meant the millionaire reaped a windfall while the waitress got pennies and the public debt soared.) McCain has resuscitated that canard, making the case against Obama's progressive tax policy. But he'll lose the argument and the Presidency because the Republican era of wholesale deregulation and the redistribution of wealth, upward, is over. ~- Robert Shrum

 Manning? Guffaw! I very seriously doubt that a son of the Father of the Lie would use the truth as a weapon the way JRM does. Is that so? Lets dig in to this. Neron or the antichrist means emperor Nero because Nero persecuted the forst Christians in Rome. JRM has on several occasions proclaimed that he did not hate Christians. But he has many many times used his skills to spreat hate against Mormons. John is a transcendental meditation teacher who has initiated 5000 people to TM. TM is a cult of greed and lies. One of Manning's goals is to expose facts about the organization and the guy who talked through his hat in order to alert potential subscribers as well as those TBMs who are still able to do some of their own thinking.

And the fact that I'm so viciously hated by the 'true believer' Mormon apologists shows that I'm quite successful at exposing their religion for the total bullshit fraud that it is. The suckers who fully buy into it end up paying 10% of their monthly income to the tax free LDS headquarters for life - as the LDS Church corporate headquarters takes in approximately $500,000,000,00 each month. The church itself was founded by a slick, opportunistic criminal huckster and serial adulterer by the name of Joseph Smith Jr who instituted polygamy as a cover from his fabricated god so he could keep his wandering pecker wet.
