<http://www.wnd.com/index.php?fa=PAGE.view&pageId=79900> OK, here are the facts: Obama was born in Honolulu. His birth certificate is real, and says he was born in Honolulu, HI. The facts are given in the following website: http://www.factcheck.org/elections-2008/born\_in\_the\_usa.html President-elect Obama will become President Obama on Jan. 20, 2009. Deal with it. To deny it means you are living in a fantasy land.

That is a short form. Why is he in court fighting to keep the real birth certificate from the American people? He is not. I guarantee you, if there was something fishy about his citizenship, Hillary would have found it and used it. Hillary is much, much smarter than you or any of the quarter-wits currently whining about this non-issue. Look, just go ahead and call him a nigger. That will calm you down. Tartarus

***** What bothers me about this issue is ... it's so easy for Obama to put this issue to rest (if he can), but he refuses to do it. All that does is add fuel to the fire. I also don't understand why the Obama groupies don't want this issue put to rest by the simple act of making the long form birth certificate public. When there are efforts made to hide information, it's quite normal to ask ... WHY? I suspect he was born where and when he claims, but the long form birth certificate contains some embarrassing information.

That is my suspicion too, but as long as the courts don't order him to reveal it he is under no legal obligation to do so. In fact, there is so much whining about every aspect of this guy that to do so for one special interest group would open the flood gates for all the others. If I was advising him, I would tell him to keep it a secret. Tartarus

***** What bothers me about this issue is ... it's so easy for Obama to put this issue to rest (if he can), No, it isn't. Assume he produces a birth certificate. At that point Berg will try to produce an expert or someone claiming to be an expert who will testify to discredit it. If the court refuses the expert's credentials then Berg calls a press conference and denounces the conspiracy keeping him from properly examining the evidence .

And since Obama has done something a bit interesting the press will actually start to be interested in Berg so they'll come to the press conference giving a lot more publicity to this claim. OK, ok, but Berg will have no case to present without his expert so it's over then, right? Of course not. Read Berg's filing. That Obama wasn't born in the United States is only one of the charges Berg makes. All he'll accomplish is to give Berg publicity. Obama's best course is to give Berg the absolute minimum attention possible.

And I'm not calling him *President Obamanation* any more than I respected Bill Clinton when he was living at 1600 Penna Ave. Like Bill Clinton, he got there by defrauding the American voters. This statement has some credence. Unless and until we learn who all of the donor's to his campaign were and in what amounts, there most likely will be many Americans who question his right to be president. Unfortunately, lapses of ethics aren't followed up and reported on by anyone in government. Also, when dealing with the president it seems anything goes. Vince Foster comes to mind here. Harry Reid comes to mind, as does Dianne Feinstein.....AAC

And there was a reason 900 FBI records were rifled and Vince Foster was killed. And if he's going to ofuscate on his birth certificate, what won't he lie about? Do we want that in a Chief Executive? I didn't like that about Bill Clinton, either. Charles the Curmudgeon

HONOLULU ? Even though Hawaii officials now claim to have verified the authenticity of Sen. Barack Obama's birth certificate Bogus issue settled. Hawwii officials verified that Obama was born there. Adding the world claim is like saying, NASA claims to have landed on the Moon. or Columbus claimed the world was round. It's doesn't change the facts. ... and besides, this issue is bogus and stupid. It was from the beginning and is even more now.

His birth certificate has been released and is online; he does not have a long form. The state of Hawaii does and it is a personal and private record not available to Obama. When you apply for a copy of your birth certificate, you get what Obama got. He was born in Hawaii. Case closed.

He was born in Hawaii. Case closed. ***** You may be right. What do you think he is hiding? Nothing. He has released his birth certificate and it is online. The long form as you call it would add nothing to the issue of his Constitutional qualification. Nothing about his birth weight, height, which hospital, doctor, etc. is probative on the question are you a natural born US citizen. The COLB assures that and that is all that is required, your nosiness about other details notwithstanding.
